ROYCROFT MASTERS ADVISORY PROGRAM & ALM ASSISTANCE

Free advisory engagements are available to credit unions up to $100 million in assets through the Roycroft Masters Advisory Program. Experienced credit union professionals provide short-term, one-on-one engagements offering a fresh perspective, with an unbiased outside perspective.

Advisory concentrations include:

- Preparing & responding to NCUA examinations
- Building your loan portfolio
- Starting new programs or services
- Compensation evaluations
- Effective marketing

Participants receive an initial on-site visit from a Roycroft Master plus follow-up advice and mentoring via phone or email.

As part of the Roycroft Masters Program, the Foundation has negotiated preferred rates from ALM modeling service providers for small credit unions. Visit cufound.org/roycroft for details.

BEST PRACTICES

The Foundation publishes TurnKey, a special pull-out section in the Foundation's newsletter, Potential. Included in each issue of TurnKey is an industry-leading member service or product employed by a MD- or DC-based credit union.

An easy-to-read Q&A format introduces readers to the featured best practices. Online tools and additional resources help credit unions evaluate and replicate the product or service at their own credit union. View past TurnKey issues at cufound.org/turnkey

LINX ONLINE FORUM

LINX is the Foundation's free online information, document, and idea exchange forum where users interact by posting questions and responses over a variety of focused topics.

THE MILLIONAIRE'S CLUB

Credit unions interested in building youth membership while supporting personal finance skills have joined with the Foundation to establish The Millionaire's Club financial literacy experience in local high schools and organizations.

Teachers are provided the tools and seed funding needed to launch and deliver comprehensive personal finance curriculum in an engaging club-like setting.

Credit unions sponsor their Clubs and serve as occasional guest speakers on topics such as budgeting, credit, and choosing a financial institution. Local, regional, and national competitions complete the program.

COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS

The annual Credit Union College Scholarship Program is available for all MD & DC-based credit unions to offer to their members.

Applicants vie for $12,000 in scholarships, and may apply in three separate categories:

- Essay-based - Topics commonly relate to financial literacy issues or ways that credit unions can best serve youth markets
- Video-based - One-minute videos showcase the creativity of young members
- Photo-based - Applicants submit photos that depict a credit union value

Young credit union members benefit directly from the scholarship awards while becoming better members as they learn about their credit union. Online applications ease participation and free, ready-to-use promotional materials help credit unions promote the scholarships to their members.

Over the program's history, the Foundation has awarded over $251,000 in college scholarships.

Visit cufound.org/cuscholarship to view details and resource materials to help promote the scholarship program to your members.
